Keeping Up With the Board – from President Karen Lyons

The Fall Workshop season has come to a close. The season was concluded this month with a Workshop presented by Rev. Charles Cox. Almost five thousand dollars was raised. Lastly but not least was the Mer-Ka-Ba Workshop presented by Rev. Evadne Tuxhorn. I was not able to attend Evadne's workshop. If you were not able to attend, the class material is still available you can contact Evadne for more information. Thank you Revs Cox and Tuxhorn for your service to the membership and guests of Sunset Church. Thank you to everyone who participated in the Fall Workshop season!

Spring Workshops are already being planned so if you have ideas concerning what you can do to help or who/what you would like in the way of events, contact Linda Anderson or any Board member. I wouldn't wait too long.

The first Sunday in November is the Annual Hunters Feed in Wells. The Board meeting for November will be moved to the second Sunday so everyone can take advantage of the opportunity to support the Wells community. The second Sunday there will be a pot luck dinner after services followed by the Board meeting. I expect a report concerning the addition of a chair lift access to the basement. I also anticipate an update on the bath house project. Believe it or not Camp 2009 will also be on the agenda. I hope everyone who can will stay for lunch and join in the meeting.

At the October membership meeting, the two building projects were passed by the vote of the membership as well as the decision to update our insurance coverage. The insurance update will be an expensive venture, it will double the cost of our current premium, but I support this decision. Not only is adequate coverage prudent, it is just a matter of being good stewards for the next generation. Of course the new officers were installed and as President I presented a report of the Board's activity for the preceeding year. Marge Glasgow was recognized by the Board and membership as Queen For A Day. We've all said it and we've all admired her work, but it is so hard to convey our gratitude to Marge for the beautiful tender loving kindness she has bestowed on the Camp grounds through her constant attention to the landscaping. The moment one steps on the grounds, the eyes are bathed in beauty and the stage is set for an expectation of a divine gift. Marge, once again, Thank You.

The Build A Bath House campaign continues. I would like to announce that a challenge pledge has been made by the "second row". Eugene Whitley, Leo Whitley, and LeRoy Windhorst have all pledged $500.00 dollars each with the pledge of $500.00 from five others. This isn't the first time Leo has made a challenge pledge. The last time was a challenge to match $1000.00. The matching funds were raised in about a week. In fact, this time the challengers are so confident they have already written their checks. I made my pledge immediately. I don't know why, but I love getting into Leo's back pocket. I have one other pledge, so I just need three more. If you can meet this challenge, please contact me or better yet, contact Javene. She likes to get into Leo's pocket once in awhile too. You may donate to this or any other project by visiting our web site. Your gift is tax deductible dollar for dollar. As the year ends, and you prepare for the tax season, don't forget the Church.

When I consider the vastness of the universes, the degree of my ignorance, the belief in a divine plan, I marvel that I am here now, a part of that plan. What am I? I am a child of the Divine Light of love and grace. Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God that you are my partner in this great adventure. May my memory of this fact be constant and sure.
