Keeping Up With The Board- President Karen Lyons

Dear

The Board of Trustees will meet Sunday, November 1 following Potluck lunch. All members are welcome to attend and participate in all business meetings.

The Fall Workshops that were scheduled fell apart. The presenters of the September and October Workshops experienced an unforeseeable emergency with family. However, we still have the Body, Mind, Spirit Festival in October. We are working to put together an activity for November as well. In fact, there has been interest expressed in having a weekend event to practice what we have learned over the last two years. If this is of interest to you, I'd like to hear from you. I know for myself, I could use a little Reiki practice.

This might be a good place to talk about the mission of Sunset Church. The Board of Trustees is tasked with the duty to provide facilities of sharing and learning by our Constitution. The Board has done an excellent job of maintaining and improving our facilities. We need workers to fulfill the rest of the equation. We need folks who are willing to teach and students who are willing to learn. If there is a topic you have been wanting to investigate, please let a member of the Board know, or attend the next Board meeting and inform the Board of your desire. If you are a teacher, looking for an outlet, please contact a member of the Board or inform the Board at a regular meeting. We have a facility that is second to none in this region. Let's put it to work!

Friday, October 16 those who would like to set up for The Body, Mind, Spirit Festival are welcome to do so. We will have wienie roast in the evening, weather permitting. All will be welcome. The Festival will be held at the Wells Community Center. Booth rental is $25 for the weekend. To reserve your booth please contact Linda. Dinner Saturday night for anyone who wishes to join us will be served in the dining room at the Church. Dinner Saturday night at the Church is a great time of fellowship. A time for everyone to gather and wind down from the busy day to just enjoy each others company. We will have a lot of fun so plan now to attend.

As you may have guessed, I have been re-elected President. I know full well the reason is simple, no one wants the job. It is a hard job. Knowing that no one else wants the job does not diminish the honor that I feel you give to me. I am not perfect. I am told that from time to time I hurt someone's feelings or made someone angry. I am often surprised and horrified to hear these reports. Sometimes the offended party will let me fix it and give me another chance. Sometimes, they won't. I can easily give you this pledge, I never intend to hurt anyone. Because I have not walked a mile in your shoes, I sometimes have no idea that you are hurt or took my actions in a way in which they were not intended. Because you have not walked a mile in my shoes, you may not know my intentions. I do the best I can and what I don't know can cause hurt feelings. You may see by now this does not apply only to me. Everyday we make decisions and comments that are potentially hurtful to others without even knowing it. I encourage you, if you are hurt by someone, tell them. One of my favorite verses in the Bible is, "love covers (hides) a multitude of sin". The context of this verse is hurting other people. I love you and strive to operate from the seat of love, the heart.
